The Giving Tree
By Shel Silverstein
4.3/5

A tender story, touched with sadness, aglow with consolation. Shel Silverstein has created a moving parable for readers of all ages that offers an affecting interpretation of the gift of giving and a serene acceptance of another's capacity to love in return.

Little Prince is the story of Antoine's meeting with a boy when his plane is stranded in the desert. This mysterious boy claims to live alone on a small planet. Antoine describes the loneliness that afflicts the prince and how he tries to find a friend. This little prince's story teaches a mother's child to be independent and brave.

1984
By George Orwell
4.2/5

In the year 1984, civilization has been damaged by war, civil conflict, and revolution. Airstrip One (formerly known as Great Britain) is a province of Oceania, one of the three totalitarian super-states that rule the world. It is ruled by the "Party" under the ideology of "Ingsoc" (a Newspeak shortening of "English Socialism") and the mysterious leader Big Brother, who has an intense cult of personality. The Party brutally purges out anyone who does not fully conform to their regime using the Thought Police and constant surveillance through Telescreens (two-way televisions), cameras, and hidden microphones. Those who fall out of favour with the Party become "unpersons", disappearing with all evidence of their existence destroyed.
